Since we were founded in 2007, It's Nice That has become the leading platform to inspire creativity around the world. Across our online platform, and through our events and social channels, we reach an audience of over 2 million people every month – from juniors joining the industry to creative thought leaders.

As well as covering inspirational work and projects on the It's Nice That website, we also produce social media video content, a monthly event in London and New York called Nicer Tuesdays, and the It's Nice That Podcast. We also use our creative expertise to help brands communicate their messages and products to our audience through partnerships and other forms of advertising.

We're on the lookout for an Audio/Video editor to join the team to produce a new iteration of the It's Nice That Podcast and to support our social media video strategy. This will be an exciting opportunity whereby you'll get to work with team members across our Editorial, Creative, Digital and Project Management teams to help devise and deliver a podcast series which will be distributed across all major podcast platforms, as well as creating short form video used across social media channels too.

TASKS AND RESPONSIBILITIES

- Experience in working with multiple team members to collaborate and define ideas.
- A solid eye/ear for editing and storytelling, you'll be able to pick out the most engaging segments of a recording and make creative decisions on what content will best serve our audience.

ABOUT STEP

STEP is a training programme for young East Londoners local to the Olympic Park, who are ready to bring ideas, creative energy and perspectives to the creative and cultural sector.

YOU MUST BE

- Aged 18 to 30
- Resident of Hackney, Newham, Tower Hamlets and Waltham Forest and have attended school or college in these boroughs

Through STEP, you'll get paid London Living Wage over a 12-month training programme to develop a range of skills and creative approaches and build on your network across different organisations or departments. You'll complete a work-based placement, grow as part of a peer network, take part in regular professional development workshops, and get a budget to produce a collaborative project. We'll also connect you with a specialist industry mentor, provide careers coaching and continue to offer support as part of our community after the programme.

HOW TO APPLY

Apply Now

Complete our STEP application form by 10am on Friday 23 February 2024.

You can upload video or audio responses.
